Bottom line: any office design should be about what works for you, your employees and how your company works. Color also has a huge impact on mood and productivity, and your workspace palette should definitely be in tune with the task at hand: blue is calming, yellow inspires happiness, orange inspires creativity and red can increase energy. Condition: Used: Good. Bottomline: any office design should be about what works for you, your employees. No two designers will produce the same atmosphere. Creating quiet zones where workers are invited to retreat and concentrate – even as a part of an open-concept office design – boosts productivity and increases focus. Now live and boasting the largest database of office design from all over the two designers will produce the same atmosphere.
